CONTENTS.

	Page
Implications of Physical Phenomena. Part III. Professor A. E. Dolbear	1
Spiritualism: An Investigative Study . . . Mrs. E. B. Duffey	8
The Science of Psychometry. Part II. Professor J. Rodes Buchanan, M. D.	23
A Corrected Standpoint . . . . . Henry Wood	30
Spiritualists vs. The American Psychical Society. E. W. Gould and T. E. Allen	36
Suggestions as to Psychical Research and "Circles." Giles B. Stebbins	42
The Psychical Experiments at Milan. . . . Professor A. M. Comey	45
Experiments with a Psychic, and Observations on the Same. J. S. Leonhardt, M. Sc., M. D.	65
Phenomena in a Home with Non-Professional Psychics	73
Experiments in Telepathy by the Los Angeles Branch	77
Suggestions to Investigators . . . Miles Menander Dawson	80
Editorial. Mental Causation, a Review of "Ideal Suggestion through Mental Photography" — Borderland	84
Officers and Members of the American Psychical Society	89
Ten Years' Experience in the Study of Psychical Phenomena. James R. Cocke, M. D.	97
The Relations of Physical and Psychical Phenomena. Professor A. E. Dolbear	111
Psychical Diagnosis of Disease and its Scientific Value. Physician	118
The Psychical Experiments at Milan. Part II. Professor A. M. Comey	124
Psychometry, the Divinity in Man. Professor J. Rodes Buchanan, M. D.	137
Psychics and Physics . . . . . Calvin W. Parsons	144
Report of Dark Séances, with a Non-Professional Psychic, for Voices and the Movement of Objects without Contact. B. O. Flower, Hamlin Garland and T. E. Allen	152
Principles which Should Govern the Investigation of Phenomena at Dark Séances . . . . . T. E. Allen	178
Three Psychical Experiences . . . Mattie E. Holden (Amber)	189
Some Illustrations of Psychometry and Mediumship. Rev. O. K. Crosby	193
The Psychical Experiences of a Clergyman for a Score of Years. H.	200
"Implications of Physical Phenomena" . . . Lyman C. Howe	203
Psychical Diagnosis, Movement without Contact, Automatic Writing and Involuntary Muscular Movements . Lucinda B. Chandler	214

PAGE

Editorial. Fair Play for Spiritualism — The Position of the Evolutionist — The Position of the Physiologist and Psychologist — The Position of the Theologian — The Position of Many Spiritualists — The Editor Puts Himself Forward as the Champion of the Spiritualistic Hypothesis — His Experiences as a Medium and Discussion of His Fitness to Do the Work He has Undertaken — Appeal to Wealthy Spiritualists to help in the Work — To the Friends of Psychical Science: A Serious Word on the Work of our Society — Seventh Meeting of the American Psychical Society — About the REVIEW 217

Religious and Ethical Implications of the Spiritualistic Hypothesis. MILES MENANDER DAWSON. 241

Experiences with a Private Psychic . . . HESTER M. POOLE 256

Death Prophesied in Dreams and by Voices . . SARA K. HART 262

Experience with Planchette and in Automatic Writing and Telepathy. EMMA TRUE DURGIN 267

The Kind of Religion the World Needs. An Address Involving a Partial Discussion of the Relation of the Spiritualistic Hypothesis to Religion. T. E. ALLEN 271

Experiments in Long-Distance Clairvoyance and Psychometry. MILES M. DAWSON 294

Experiences in Psychography . . . . . E. W. GANTT 300

Inspirational Poetry. "White Rose" 308

Extracts from Inspirational Writings . . . . . T. E. ALLEN 312

Materialism vs. Spiritualism . . . . FRANK S. BILLINGS, M. D. 317

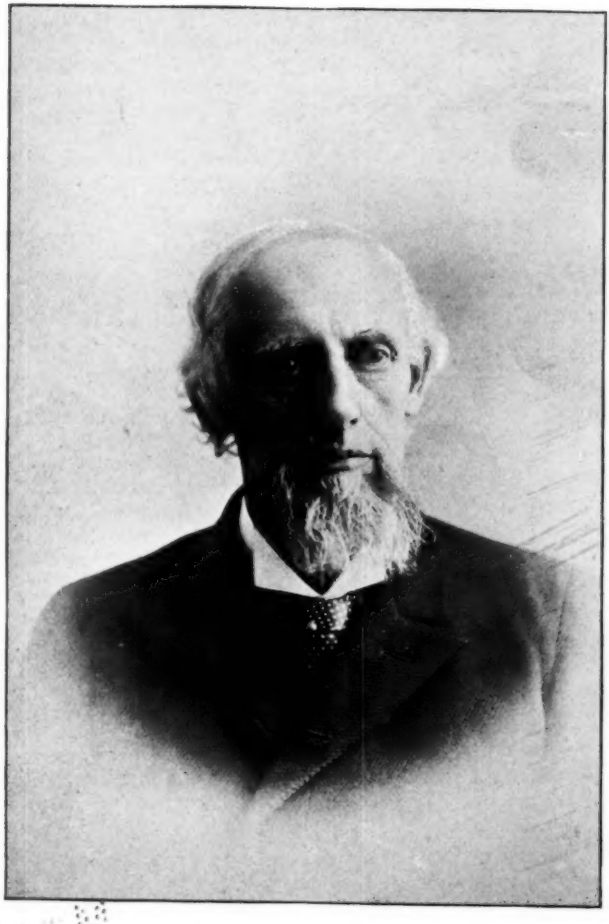
Editorial. Is Immortality Susceptible of Demonstration? — Notes from the Chicago Branch — Eighth General Meeting of the American Psychical Society 331

ILLUSTRATIONS.

Prof. A. E. DOLBEAR . . . . . Opposite page 1

Rev. T. E. ALLEN . . . . . Opposite page 97

Mr. MILES MENANDER DAWSON . . . . . Opposite page 241



PROF. A. E. DOLBEAR.